COME BACK SUNDAY Bring your family and friends.

Don't miss Jerry Manuel here on Sunday, April 23 in all four services! Jerry Manuel's career spans 40 years in major league baseball. He previously managed the Chicago White Sox and the New York Mets. He played in the majors for parts of five seasons in the 1970s and early 1980s. He now works as an analyst for MLB .

Jerry has honed his skills at the highest level and is now pouring what he has learned into the next generation. With his commitment to build character in our youth, he continues to create a great legacy through his foundation. You'll want to hear what this servant leader from our own community has to share!
