For the week of Sept 25, 2016

QUICK REVIEW

Take a moment to review your notes from Sunday's message. Are there any points that resonate with you?

MY STORY

1. Looking back at the study from last week, was there ever a time when the past felt better than your current situation?
2. Did you take any next steps this week with your chair time? If so, what did you do?

DIGGING DEEPER

Luke 6:27-36

²⁷ "But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. ²⁸ Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you. ²⁹ If someone slaps you on one cheek, offer the other cheek also. If someone demands your coat, offer your shirt also. ³⁰ Give to anyone who asks; and when things are taken away from you, don't try to get them back. ³¹ Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

³² "If you love only those who love you, why should you get credit for that? Even sinners love those who love them! ³³ And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you get credit? Even sinners do that much! ³⁴ And if you lend money only to those who can repay you, why should you get credit? Even sinners will lend to other sinners for a full return.

³⁵ "Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. ³⁶ You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.

3. When applied literally, verses 29-30 appear to encourage us to allow others to take advantage of us. Do you agree? What do you think is Jesus' point in verses 29-30?
4. With these verses in mind, how should I respond when people attack?

Exodus 17:1-7

¹At the LORD's command, the whole community of Israel left the wilderness of Sin and moved from place to place. Eventually they camped at Rephidim, but there was no water there for the people to drink. ²So once more the people complained against Moses. "Give us water to drink!" they demanded. "Quiet!" Moses replied. "Why are you complaining against me? And why are you testing the LORD?"

³But tormented by thirst, they continued to argue with Moses. "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Are you trying to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?"

⁴Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What should I do with these people? They are ready to stone me!"

⁵The LORD said to Moses, "Walk out in front of the people. Take your staff, the one you used when you struck the water of the Nile, and call some of the elders of Israel to join you. ⁶I will stand before you on the rock at Mount Sinai. Strike the rock, and water will come gushing out. Then the people will be able to drink." So Moses struck the rock as he was told, and water gushed out as the elders looked on.

5. Where did the command to move the community come from, and who did the community blame?
6. What was Moses' response to the community?
7. When we obey God, are we guaranteed an environment free from the attacks of others?

TAKING IT HOME

Sometimes we think we are following God, but in reality we are following our own will and decisions. This can be challenging because we are reaping the consequences of our own decisions. Let's be real for a moment. Pastor Craig said our actions may result in people attacking. Sometimes people attack because we did something to provoke them, and their responses are simply consequences of our poor choices. Furthermore, God never promised us a consequence-free life. Thus, being able to know who's will we are following is important. Below are some thoughts to help us determine whether it is God or ourselves who are leading our lives.

8. What are some methods you use to determine if you are following God's will or your own?
9. What is the most challenging part about not seeking justice or revenge for you?

Read Romans 12:9-21 and Colossians 3:1-17.

The Apostle Paul teaches us in the above passages to...

10. What speaks to you in this passage from Romans or Colossians? How might you remember to apply these truths in your life?

CHAIR TIME TOOLS

11. It is important to surround ourselves with others in this life so that when we feel attacked our friends can encourage us, pray with us, and remind us that the battle belongs to the Lord. Who do you surround yourself with in life? How do you keep your focus on the Lord during the battle or storm?

Read Exodus 17:9 and Numbers 31:3-4.

Sometimes in life we get busy and forget to turn to God. We think that our problems are too small for Him, or believe that because we made our mess we are responsible for fixing it. When circumstances such as these arise, it is important to remember that we are invaluable to God and that He is aware of every detail of our lives. Furthermore, Jesus teaches us that God knows our needs before we even ask (Matt 6:8). So when we are in the midst of a storm and everything seems to be falling apart, that is the time for us to keep our focus on God because He cares for us. God cares for us so much that He sent His one and only Son to die on the cross for our sins so that we can be with Him forever and so that we can freely turn to Him with all of our needs.

12. Do you ask God for help in every situation? During your chair time do you sense that there are any relationships, situations, or needs that God is prompting you to trust Him with?

Read: Psalm 56:9, James 5:16, Luke 12:6.
